evilevilcouch@gmail.com: this is my brother's bio on facebook:

evilevilcouch@gmail.com: I've been a professional musician, "The Vietnam Entertainment Officer," a combat photographer and press officer in Vietnam, owned a "carriage-trade" portrait and wedding photographer studio in Ann Arbor, then a carpenter and a drunk. In 1978, I felt a powerful "calling," and in 1979 began seven years of graduate studies at the University of Chicago, earning an M.A. in methods of studying religion and a Ph.D. in theology, the philosophy of religion and the philosophy of science, with an added emphasis on language philosophy. My Ph.D. dissertation was _The Legitimate Heir to Theology: A Study of Ludwig Wittgenstein_ (Univ. of Chicago, 1988). From 1986 to 2009, I was a Unitarian minister. Now I've retired from the ministry, working toward a twilight career as an author and voice in national discussions of religion, science, values, morals/ethics, politics, economics, culture and character.
